

Ferndale High School After-School Tutoring Program

What: A nice, quiet place where students can go after school to receive one-on-one help in any subject or to do their work before they go home.

Where: The media center

When: Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays from 3:15-5:15 pm

How it works:

- 1) Set up an appointment.
- 2) Be inside the media center by 3:20 (or bring a pass).
- 3) Sign in.
- 4) Wait until your appointment time.
- 5) Work with your assigned tutor.
- 6) If necessary, make another appointment.
- 7) Sign out and go home.

*note: Students may also drop in without an appointment, but without an appointment, they are taking the risk of not being able to see a tutor.

BASIC RULES

- 1) Be inside the media center by 3:20 pm or you must bring a pass.
- 2) When you arrive, sign in.
- 3) If you have to wait to see a tutor, wait patiently and quietly.
- 4) Do not bother/distract others.
- 5) When you leave the room, you need to get a pass.
- 6) If you display any behavioral problems, you can be kept from returning.
- 7) No food. Drink water only.
- 8) Headphones are allowed on low volume only (see rules #2 and #3).
- 9) No cell phones.
